Summary

As an accomplished Fullstack Developer with over 5 years of expertise in API development, database configuration, and proficiency in Node.js, WordPress, and React.js, I prioritize performance and security in all my projects. I excel in implementing microservices architectures using Next.js for frontend and Spring Boot REST API with Spring Cloud Gateway for backend. With expertise in Redis caching and JWT authentication, I bring solid foundation in DevOps practices to automate testing, streamline application builds, and deploy with efficiency.
